

Visa Management of EXISTING applications

Full review on whether you meet the ELIGIBILITY for that visa

An analysis on what the possibility of success is for the application

We will submit this additional documentation to DOHA and manage the application until a decision

Advice on any OTHER visa pathways available to you

A careful check on all the documents you have lodged in support of the application

Advice on what more evidence and documents you need to collect and submit

Iscah to manage all the correspondence with DOHA (which you receive a copy of each time)

You are able to ask us any visa questions relating to your application and circumstances

Email applications@iscah.com

For quality management of your visa application